PATH 05

A weekly AI letter

A list is the one asset a platform cannot take from you in an afternoon.

Who this is for

You can write clearly once a week. You want an asset that compounds.

First sale

Fifty honest subscribers and one reply that is not spam.

Time to first

2–4 weeks to a real list

Cash window

Sells the playbook after trust

Tools

Beehiiv or MailerLite, a one-page diagnostic as the lead magnet, a form.

Leave this alone

Daily blasts. Buying a list. Essays nobody asked for.

What the letter is for

The letter is not a blog. It is a weekly appointment. One idea, one story, one ask. AI can draft. You cut until it sounds like you on a Tuesday.

You sell inside the letter after they have heard from you enough to trust the voice. Email one is the diagnostic and the welcome. Emails 2–6 teach. Email 7 can ask. If you pitch in email one like a late-night ad, they leave.

The first 72 hours

Write issue one by hand, then optionally run it through AI to tighten — not to inflate. Build the form. The free file is a one-page scorecard or a 7-day checklist, useful even if they never buy.

Send issue one to ten people you know and ask them to reply with the line that was useful. That reply is your subject-line research.

Put the form on the same page as your offer, but second. Free first is how strangers become a list.

The path, step by step

Step 1. Promise one specific weekly note. Keep it. Same day, same length.

Step 2. Subject lines that are specific: 'The 20-minute follow-up I actually send,' not 'Newsletter #4.'

Step 3. End with one ask: reply, click, or try the prompt. Not three.

Step 4. Once a month, a quieter issue that points to the paid file.

Step 5. Never buy a list. Never scrape. Your deliverability is the business.

Copy

Welcome: 'Here is the one-page diagnostic. Reply with your score and I will tell you which path to skip.'

Issue close: 'If you want the full sequence, it is $47 and yours to keep. If not, see you next Tuesday.'

Week-by-week

Week 1: form + issue one. Week 2: issue two plus ten personal invites. Week 3: teach one path. Week 4: a quiet ask for the paid file.

Mistakes

Writing for search engines instead of one person. Letting AI publish unedited. Changing the promise every week. Sending only when you have a launch.

Close the book. Do the first 72 hours. Do not tour the rest tonight.
