Research and brief service

A messy question in. A two-page brief out. You verify what the model cannot know.

Who this is for

You can turn a pile of tabs into a decision someone can use.

First sale

One paid brief delivered on time.

Time to first

3–10 days

Cash window

$150–$600 per brief

Tools

Docs, a simple order form, sources you will and will not use.

Leave this alone

Claiming 'AI knows everything.' Publishing unreviewed facts.

The product is judgment

Anyone can paste a question into a model. You sell a 48-hour brief: what you found, what you verified, what is still unknown, and a recommended next step. One revision included.

Define sources. If you will not use a source, say so. If a number cannot be checked, it does not go in as fact.

The first 72 hours

Write the brief template. Offer it at a fixed fee to three people who already ask you 'what should I do about X?' Deliver one even if the first is discounted, then lock the price.

The path, step by step

Step 1. Intake: decision they must make, deadline, what they already tried.

Step 2. Model for sweep. You for verify.

Step 3. Two pages, not twelve. Executives do not read twelve.

Step 4. A 'do not know' section. That section is why they trust you.

Mistakes

Hallucinated citations. Briefs that refuse to recommend. Scope creep into doing the whole project.

Copy and week-by-week

'48-hour brief. Two pages. What I verified, what I still do not know, next step.'

Week 1: template plus three offers. Deliver one on time. Then lock the fee.

Close the book. Do the first 72 hours. Do not tour the rest tonight.
